Pool Pass Policy (PDF)

Below are the updated 2024 pool rules and pool pass policy.

By applying for a pool pass you will be agreeing to the Pool Rules outlined below.

Please take special care to review all the attached documents so you are aware of all the requirements and protocols in place before you enter the pool.

If you have any questions, you can contact our property manager, Felicia Shockley, directly at fshockley@tidewaterproperty.com . The Board of Directors thanks you for adhering to the rules for the 2024 season.

Thank you,

Mariner's Point Board of Directors

The pool is for the exclusive use of community members and their guests.

Responsibility: Everyone using the pool and the pool area does so at their own risk. The Mariner's Point Community Association, its officers and agents assume no responsibility for any accident or injury in connection with such use. The Association will not be responsible for any money or property loss sustained by members or their guest when using the pool.

Good Standing: All Mariners' Point Community Association members who use the pool facilities must be members in good standing of the Association. (Dues are current and there are no current violations) A member must remain in good standing and compliance with the Board to have continual access to the pool throughout the season.

Passes: Anyone admitted to the pool area must have a valid Resident or Guest Pass. The resident to whom a pass has been issued must accompany all guests.

At the discretion of the Lifeguard, a photo ID may be requested along with the pool pass. It is the responsibility of the Lifeguard to admit only persons with proper pool passes to the pool area. Do not ask the lifeguard to make exceptions for anyone. When entering the pool area, please stop at the lifeguard station to sign the log and have your pass scanned by lifeguard or other authority on duty.

If a resident with guests leaves the pool area, the guests must also leave at that time. Do not ask the guard to make any exceptions to the Pass Rules; they will be terminated for doing so.

The pool will be closed during electrical storms and inclement weather.

Attire: Only proper swim attire may be worn in the water.

Children:

- Children who are in diapers must wear snug-fitting rubber pants over their diaper/ swim diaper and a bathing suit on top. Parents are urged to be cautious with children who are not toilet-trained and to be considerate of their responsibility.
- Any child under twelve (12) years of age must be accompanied by a valid resident pass-holder eighteen (18) years old or older.
- Lifeguards are on duty to enforce rules and regulations and to respond to emergencies, the parent/guardian is ultimately responsible for the safety of their child.
- Parent/guardian must closely always watch children. A parent/guardian must always accompany a non-swimmer in the water.
- All children under the age of twelve (12) must demonstrate to the lifeguard's satisfaction their ability to swim before being allowed in the water without an adult.
- The lifeguard will conduct swimming tests before children 12 and under will be allowed to use the diving board.
- To protect non-swimmers, inner tubes, water wings, and all other flotation devices are not permitted at any time. For safety purposes, only a life vest approved by the United States Coast Guard is to be used. If a child uses such a life vest, a parent or guardian must always accompany the child in the water.

Damages: The cost of any property damage will be charged to the responsible party.

Behavior: No abusive or profane language or breach of peace will be tolerated.

Conduct & Consideration: Be considerate of small children who would like to play or practice their first swim strokes in the shallow end of the pool. No wrestling, horseplay, unnecessary roughness, or disturbances that endanger the safety of others will be permitted in the pool or pool area. Music may be played at a level that can be heard by the member only and at a volume that will not disturb others.

Lifeguard Stand: Do not congregate around the lifeguard(s) or engage them in unnecessary conversation while they are on duty.

Animals: State Law prohibits animals in the pool area.

Intoxication: Anyone intoxicated or under the influence of drugs will not be permitted in the pool area. The lifeguard may ask unauthorized persons or a person obviously under the influence to leave. Should the need arise, the Lifeguard may call the Annapolis City Police for assistance.

Furniture: Pool furniture is available on a first come, first served basis, and may not be reserved.

Eating: No food or drink is allowed within 8 feet of the pool. Please help keep the area clean and use the trash cans. Non-glass containers should be used for refreshments.

No Glass: Glass is dangerous in the pool area and is not permitted.

Rafts & Snorkels: Rafts, noodles, snorkels, and goggles may be used; however, the pool manager and lifeguard reserve the right to deny use if it is determined there is a safety concern. There are floats designated for adults only. Please be sure you advise your children of such.

No large inflatable rafts or floating chairs allowed at any time.

Toys: Toys are allowed in the deck area and in the shallow end. No toy that is a floatation device is allowed.

Water: Spouting of water, expectorating, or urinating in the pool is not permitted.

Diving Board: The diving board is to be used for diving only and is not to be used as a jumping board. Only one person is permitted on the diving board at any time. Running on the diving board is not allowed.

Occupancy: The number of persons admitted to the pool area at any time will be subject to the Pool Manager's or the Lifeguard's decisions.

Trespassing: Anyone trespassing in the pool area is subject to immediate arrest. Anyone trying to enter without a valid pool pass is trespassing. Should the need arise; the Lifeguard may call the Annapolis City Police for assistance.

Authority: The Pool Manager, the Lifeguards, and members of the Board of Directors have been granted the authority and responsibility for the enforcement of these Rules &

Regulations. They have the authority to deprive anyone of the use of the pool and the pool area for the remainder of the day on which an infraction of the Rules & Regulations occurs. Within 24 hours of taking such action, they must notify, in writing to the Management Company agent and provide a brief outline of the people involved and the rules that were violated. Continued violations of the Rules & Regulations or of the instructions of the pool authorities may lead to expulsion from the pool and the pool area for the remainder of the season.

Smoking is not permitted in the pool area. Area. Smokers are responsible for removing cigarette butts from any area outside of the pool grounds. No butts are to be discarded on the grass outside the fence.

Adult Swim: Adult swim will be called at the discretion of the lifeguard, normally on the 45-minute mark of an hour for 15 minutes. During adult swim, children must leave the pool. There may be occasions when adults are asked to leave the pool also.

Large Groups: Must contact the property manager to obtain additional guest passes in advance. Up to 10 guest passes are allowed for events and may result in additional lifeguard support depending on need. Anchor Aquatics will determine the need for extra guards.

Note: Usage of the clubhouse does NOT automatically convey usage of the pool during the clubhouse usage.

If you give your pass to any other person, your pass will be revoked for the season.
